LA REATA
SAINT MARY'S HALL
1982-1983

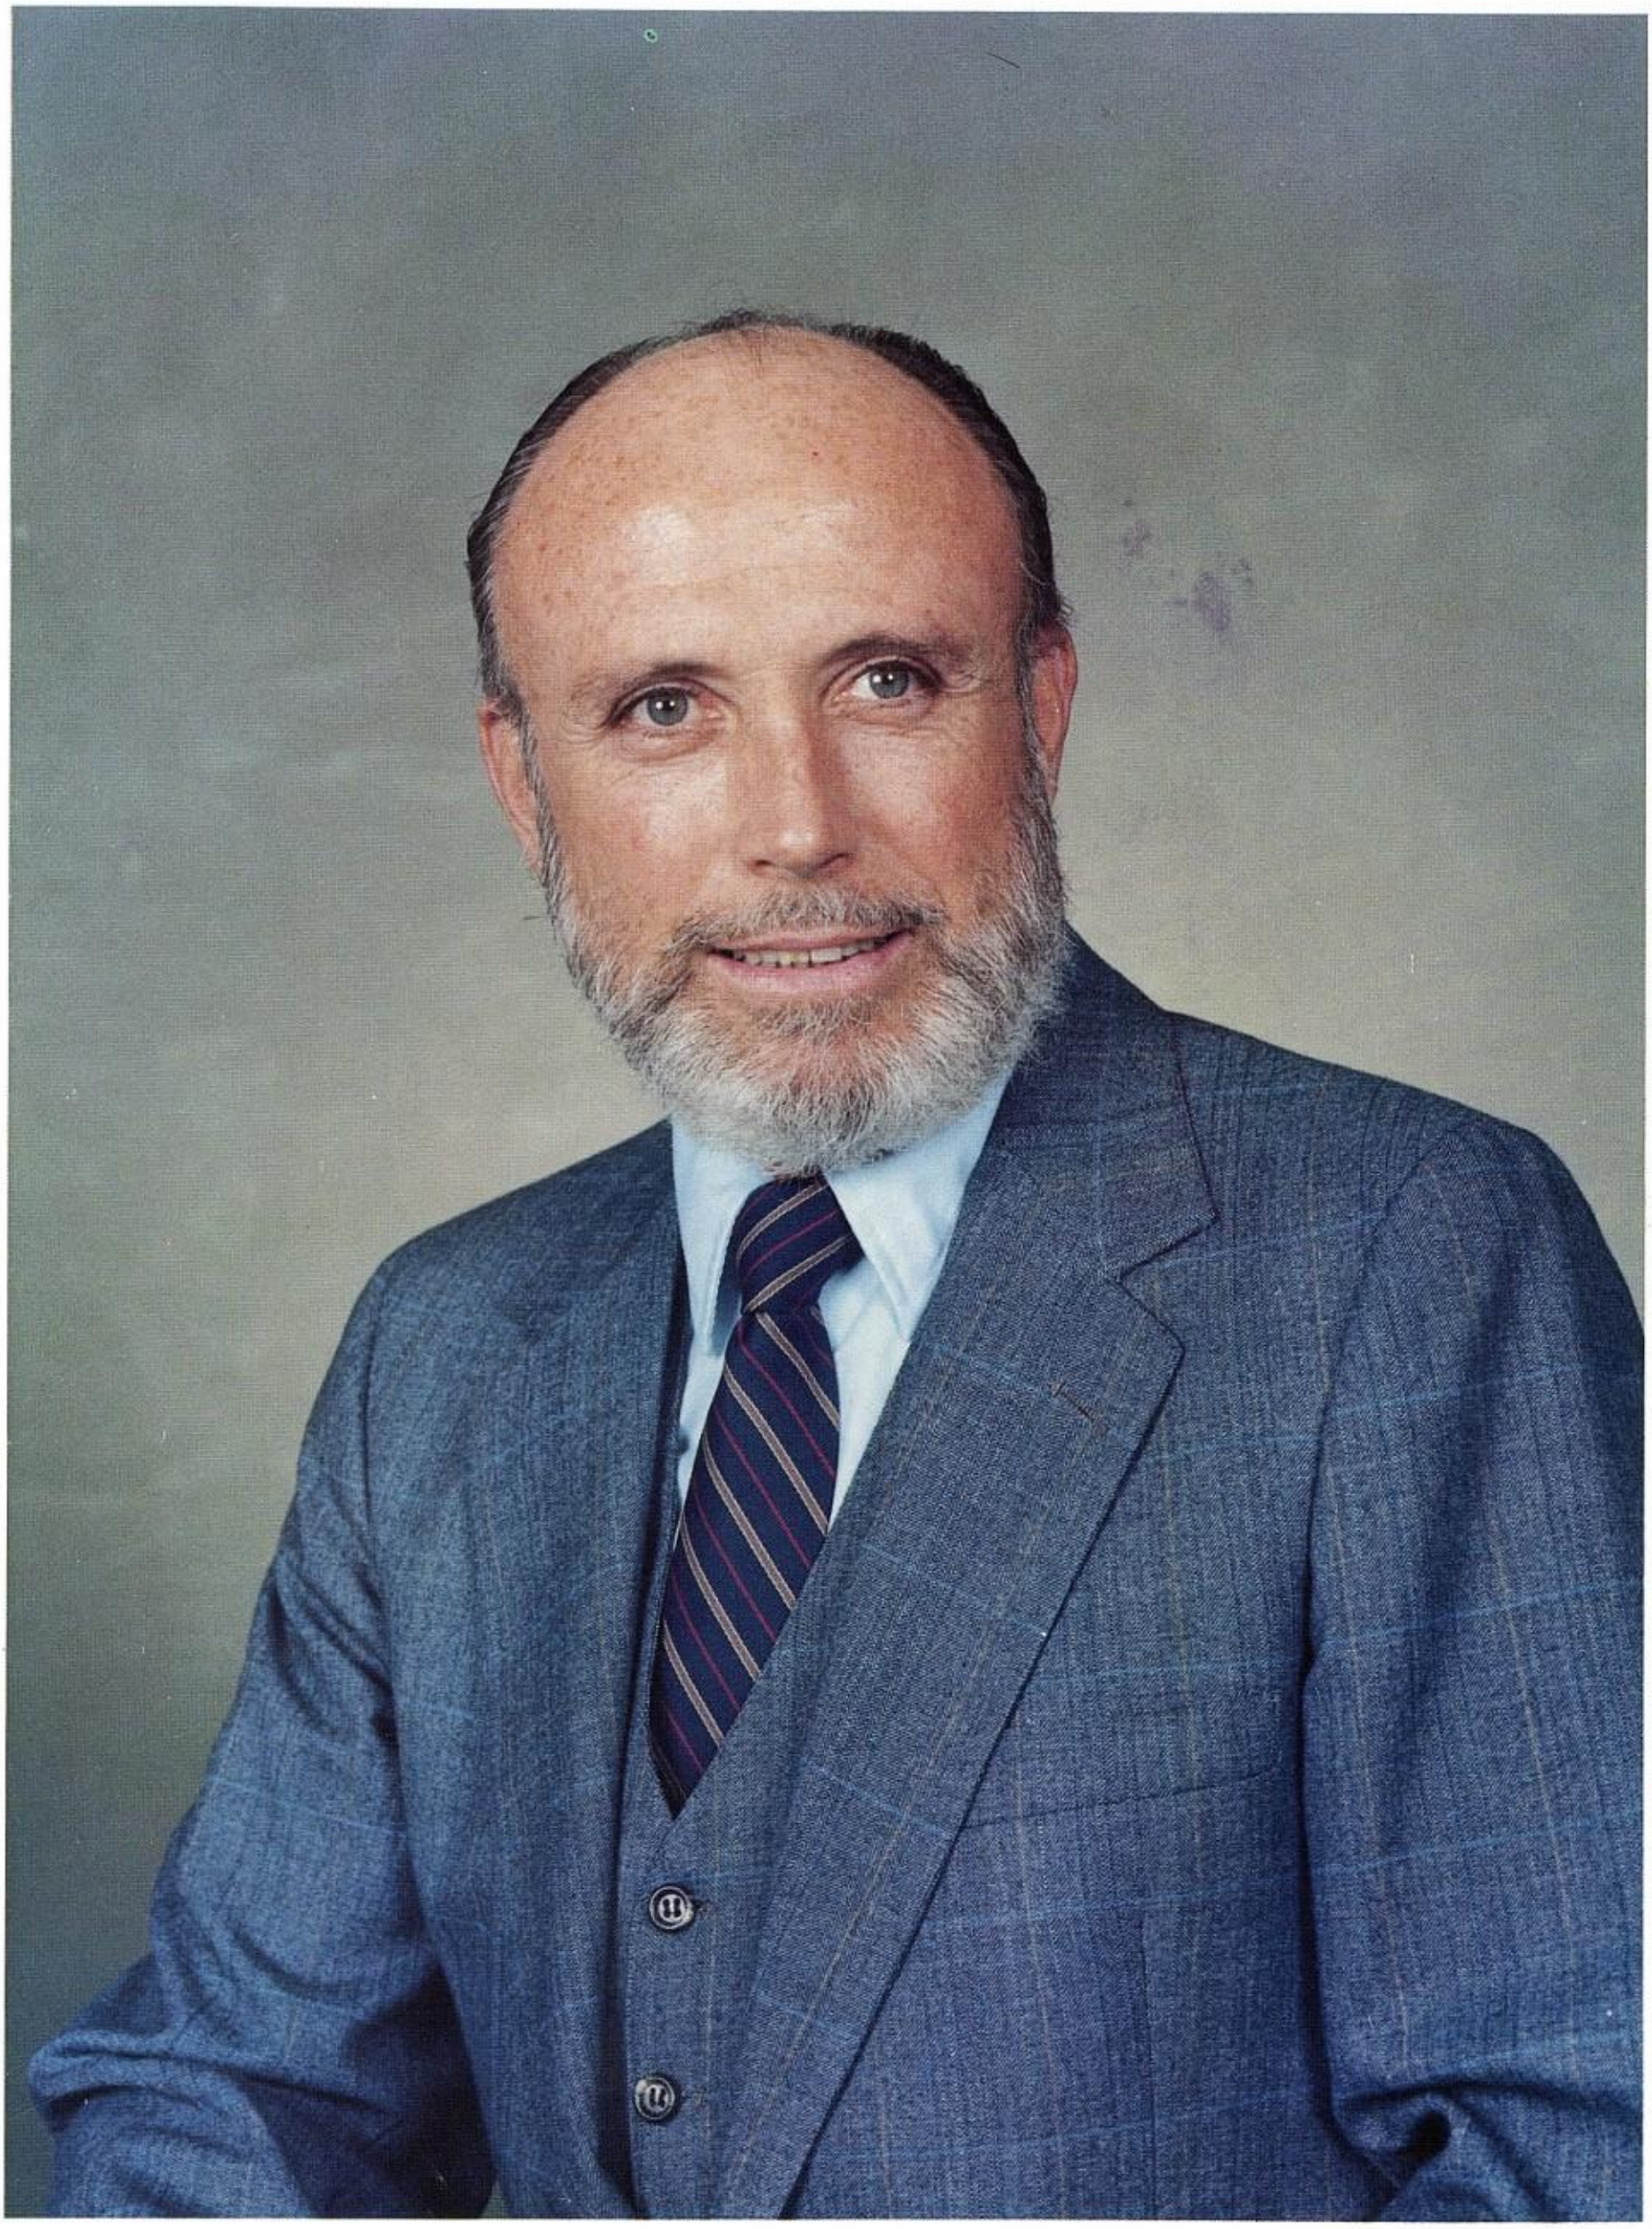
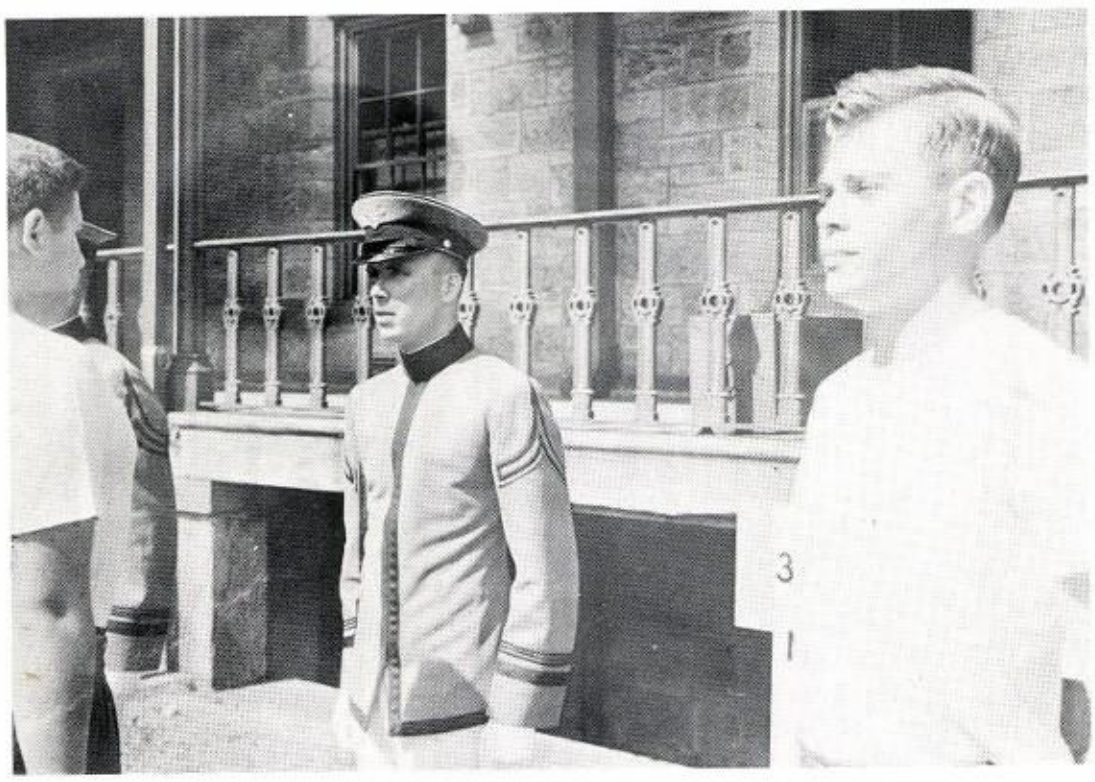
In the year 1879, an educational endeavor was begun: its name, Saint Mary's Hall. In that year a way of life for the Saint Mary's Hall student began, a way which has become "Traditional." These traditions help make up our community at Saint Mary's Hall and add not only to the growth of our minds, but also to the fullfillment of our lives. After 104 years, these traditions can still be seen in every characteristic of Saint Mary's Hall. We are surrounded by traditional symbols every day: the uniform, the symbolic ties, the shield, and the Alma Mater. The commencement ceremony with the white dresses and red roses is a tradition which still remains the same as it was years ago. The striving for academic excellence we find at Saint Mary's Hall and the emphasis on the individual are other constant reminders of this noble heritage. The motto of our school, "Teach us Delight in Simple Things," has been held dear by the Saint Mary's Hall student from the beginning . . .

In remembrance of our school's beginnings, we the La Reata staff have chosen this edition of the La Reata to represent our traditions, ones which the Saint Mary's Hall student respects—traditions which are still being carried on in the 104th year of Saint Mary's Hall.



The Senior Class recognizes with affection and admiration a faculty member who has supported our class 100% since he came to Saint Mary's Hall in 1980. His knowledge, faith, and dedication to his job and to us has made him our special ally. He has been our teacher, class sponsor, confidante, and surrogate father, but, above all, our friend.

To the United States he may be a Colonel, but to us he will always be a Five-Star General. With love and joy, the 104th graduating class of Saint Mary's Hall dedicates this edition of La Reata to Colonel Thomas Ball.

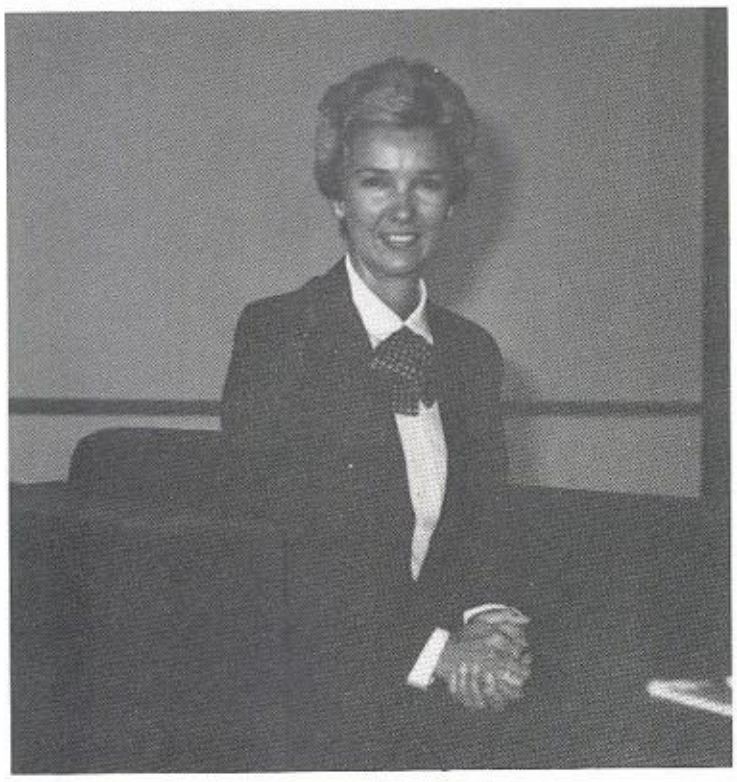


"TO THE SENIORS"

From the Senior Blue Tie and all our family days—Parents', Fathers', Mothers', Grandparents'—to Candlelight, Headmistress' Teas, Capers-Elliott, the Shield Society Induction, Bright Light—the traditions and ceremonies of Saint Mary's Hall thread the school year with color. Each adds its own dimension to the Saint Mary's Hall "experience." As you seniors approach the ultimate ceremony, Commencement, with its traditional bouquet, may you take a moment to reflect that the roses you carry are blossoms in a garland of shared experiences linking you with students who are yet to come as well as with the alumnae already enjoying the fruits of their years at Saint Mary's Hall.

Joan Mellard
Headmistress

A NOTE FROM THE BOARD



Dr. Patricia Burr

Tradition, born and nourished in an academic setting growing with its second century, provides a bit of magic unchangeable by younger institutions.

Saint Mary's Hall 1983 graduates are given special grace, as a result. Not only do you have accomplishments defined by the present and excitement suggested by the future, but you also have contentment fostered by tradition.

Honor your present plateau, meet the future head-on with goals and preparation firmly in hand—and wear well the Saint Mary's Hall tradition.

May all three serve you well.

Dr. Patricia Burr
Chairman of the Board of Trustees

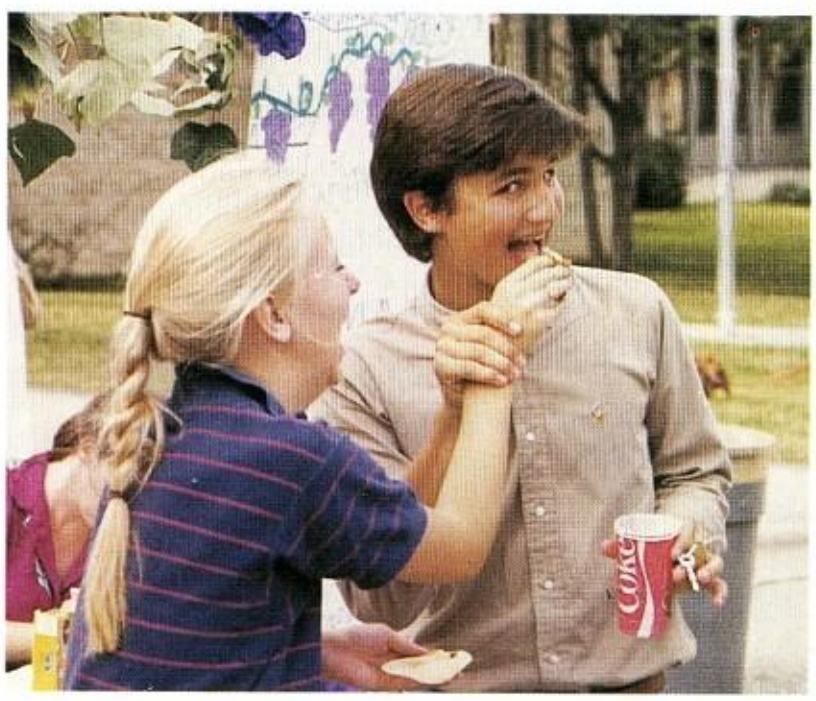
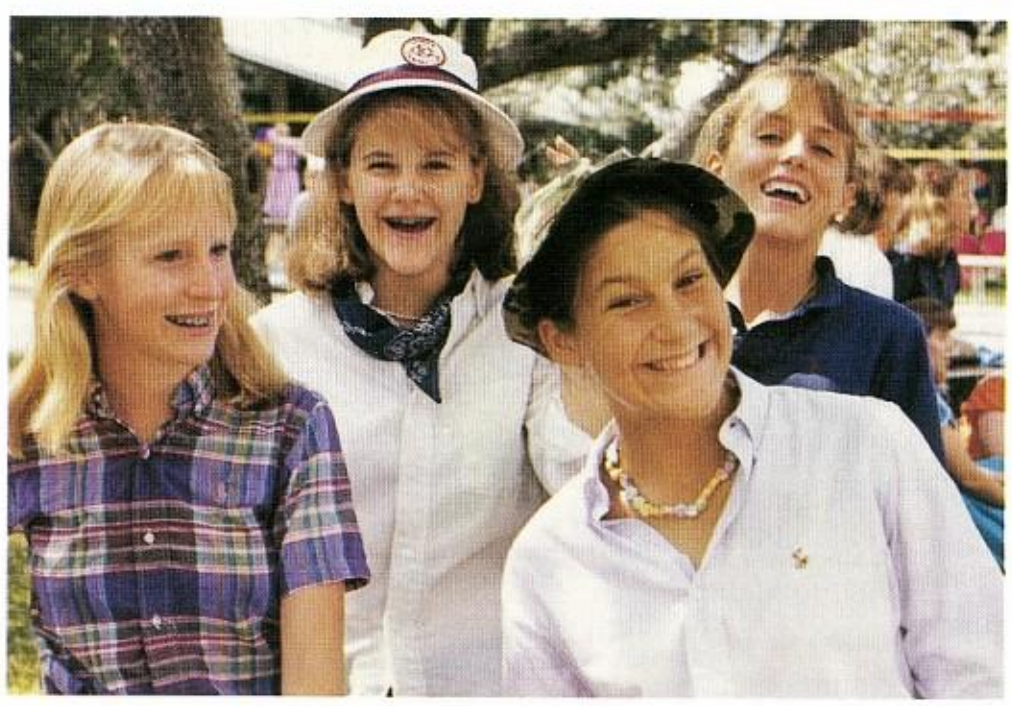
MORE FIESTA





As we pass through each day of our senior year, we are reminded not only of Saint Mary's Hall's traditions, but also of senior class traditions such as Blue Tie and Ring Ceremony, our Fiesta Cakewalk booth, Baccalaureate, Candlelight, and finally Commencement. These traditions along with senior cuts at lunch, skip day, and senior skits make being a senior at Saint Mary's Hall very special.

Tradition, the handing down of beliefs and customs, can be seen every day at Saint Mary's Hall. The Lower, Middle, and Upper Schools are united by the uniform. The traditional attire consists of colored ties, white middies, pleated skirts, and saddle oxfords. Likewise, class traditions involve us daily as we buy M & M's and baked goods from the Juniors, chocolate bars from the Seniors, soft drinks from the Freshmen, and birthday grams from the sophomores.

Faculty

The faculty, administration, and staff of Saint Mary's Hall play a critical part in our traditions. Their knowledge, dedication, and inspiration "teach us delight in simple things." We recognize their contributions to the school by inducting them into Cum Laude, The Shield Society, and by the dedication of La Reata to an outstanding member of the faculty. The Jamie Armstrong Bennett Award, announced at Commencement each year is a handsome silver bowl "to be given to a member of the faculty or staff who has made a signal contribution to the life of the school and is an exemplification of the qualities of mind and spirit most valued by the founders."

Residence

Before Saint Mary's Hall moved to Starcrest Drive in 1968, the school had three other locations: Martin Street, San Pedro Avenue, and French Place. The four dorms on the Starcrest campus, Meyer, Cowles, Abercrombie, and Murchison, are all named for people who have supported Saint Mary's Hall in meaningful ways. With the move came all of Saint Mary's Hall's traditions. Because we have a sense of being sisters in a large family, the dorm traditions are very special to us. Big sisters, Candlelight, and Senior Priviledges will be happy memories forever.

Organizations

The organizations in which we participate at Saint Mary's Hall become part of our lives. All of the clubs, societies, councils, and publication staffs represent our involvement in the school community. Serving in these positions teaches us responsibility and pride in what we achieve through our organizations. Many of these activities have become traditions. These traditions include student body support of the Student Council's needy child, the Sports Council's toy drive at Christmas, the French Club's "Croque Monsieur" sales, the Spanish Club's buñuelo sales, and many more. The publication for La Reata, The Hallmark, The Shield, and The Walrus provide news, reflect student opinion, and ensure a permanent record of student activities and achievements.

From the very first day of school at Saint Mary's Hall, we are enveloped by tradition. One of the many traditions is the Capers/Elliott Drawing, a ceremony which decides what team we are part of for the remainder of our days here. The two teams are named after two early benefactors of the school, Bishop Capers and Bishop Elliott. For years students have joined in friendly rivalry to compete for the Capers/Elliott Cup presented on Bishop's Day near the end of school. The physical education department also sponsors an interscholastic program consisting of volleyball, basketball, soccer, and tennis. These teams play other private schools in Texas who belong to the Southwest Preparatory Conference. Special events always anticipated are the faculty vs. student games with the students pitted against their teachers in volleyball, basketball, and soccer.

The traditional activities which take place throughout the year are what makes Saint Mary's Hall unique. Convocation begins the year and Commencement ends it. Between these two happenings, there are many events that we look forward to: The two drama productions, the Christmas Dance given by the Seniors, the Spring Dance given by the Juniors, Middle School Sports Day, Middle School Harvest Dance and Christmas Dance, Vespers, Headmistress' Teas, and many more.

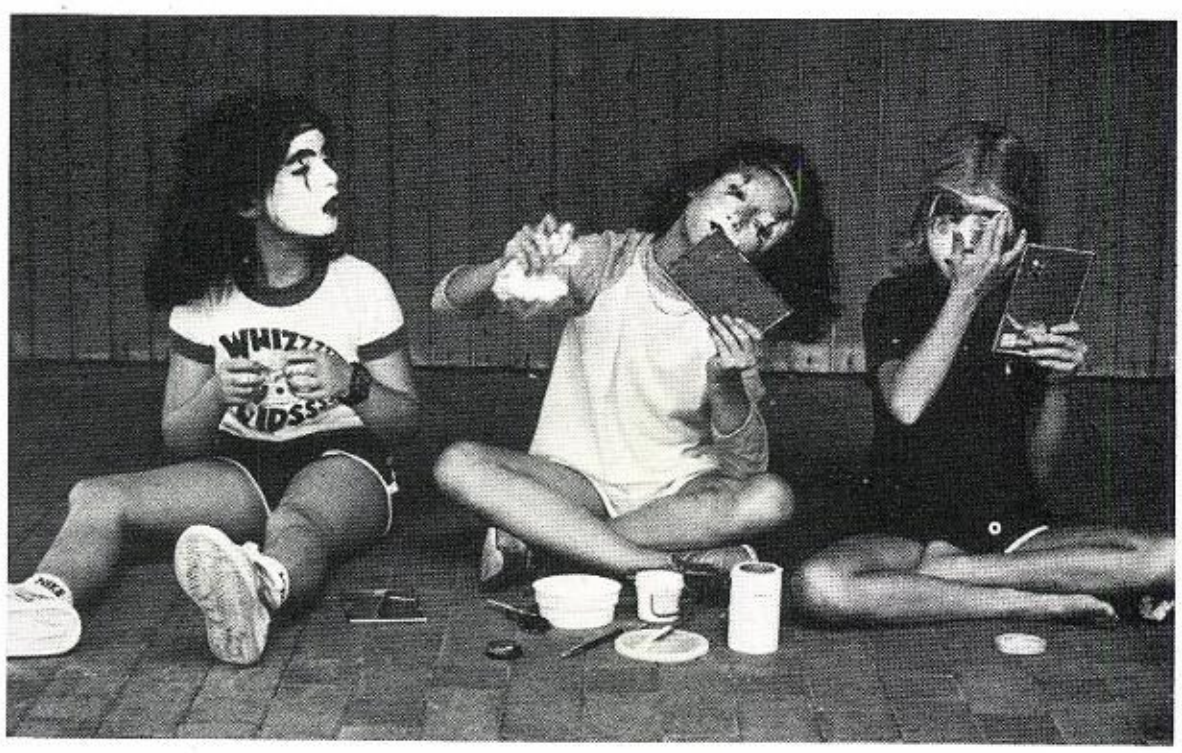
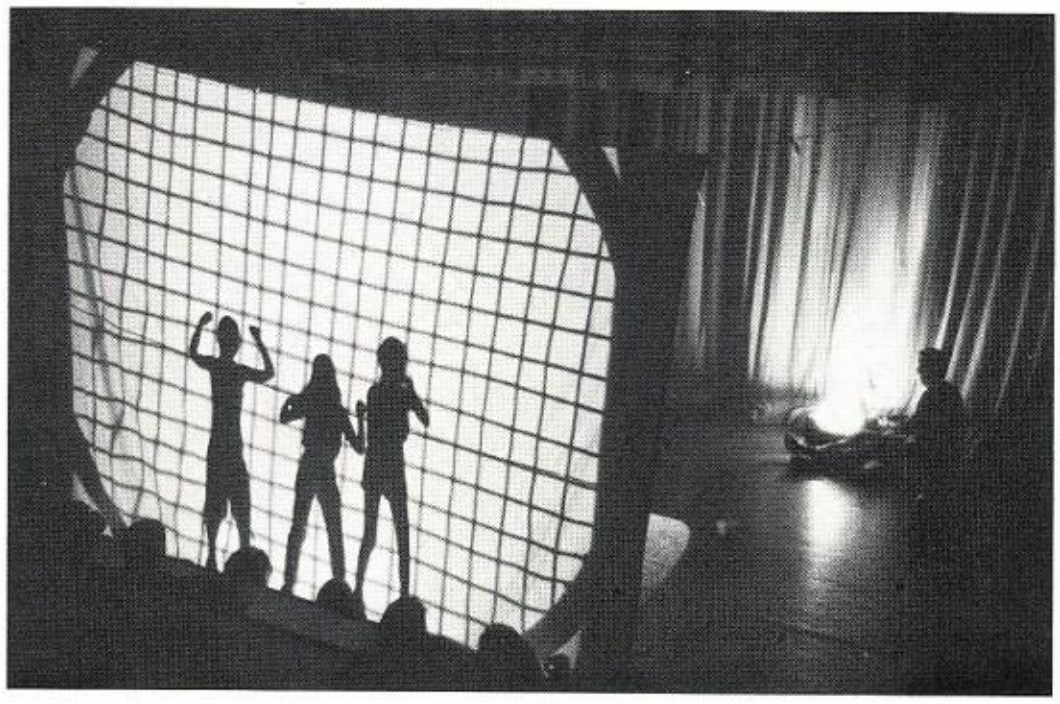
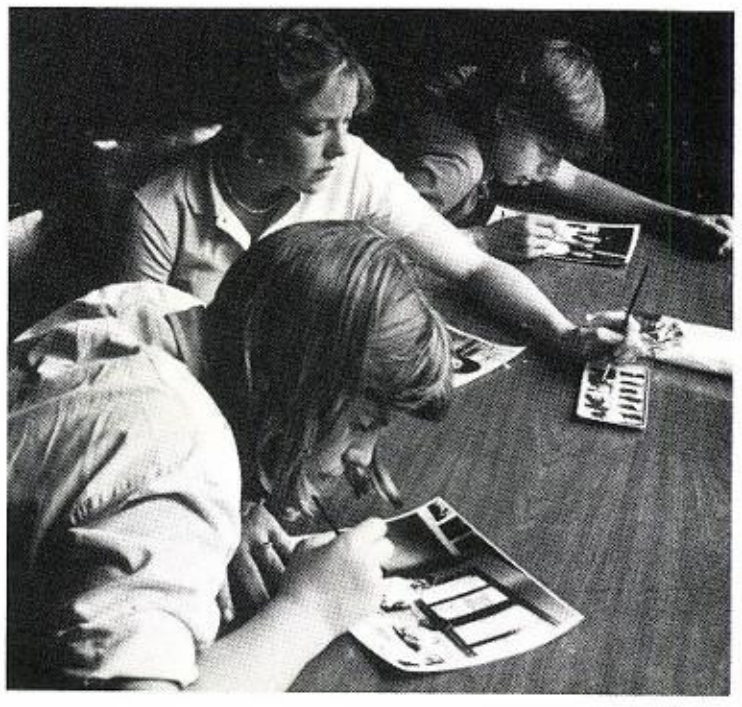
Summer Arts Program

The Summer Arts Program is for boys and girls ages eight through fifteen. Over 60 courses are offered in the arts and sports. Classes are in the art, drama, music, dance, photography, video, creative writing, computer, playwriting, and general sports. Staff and students from areas throughout the United States attend the five week program which culminates in an all day Arts Festival. English as a Second Language is also offered for non-English speaking students. The Saint Mary's Hall Summer Program is the only program of its kind in the United States.







Happy Seniors!

"Got It!"

As September 10, 1982 dawned, it became clear that the Blue Tie/Ring Ceremony for the Seniors of 1983 was going to be sunny and warm. The traditional ceremony officially welcomes the Saint Mary's Hall graduating class as seniors and the exemplar class of the year. Included in part of the ceremony, guest speakers Mrs. Mellard, Mr. Fawcett, and Mr. Yturria, welcomed the seniors and helped in presenting the Blue Ties and Seniors Rings along with the class sponsors, Colonel Ball, Colonel Whittington, and Mrs. Hoffman.

HALLOWEEN

In accordance with the school year, we celebrated Halloween on Friday, October 29. This particular Halloween brought lots of fun and interesting surprises. The Student Council sponsored a costume contest which prompted students to don a wide variety of costumes. Halloween also brought a special treat for the boarders. They enjoyed scary movies and a Halloween party organized by the Student Councils of SMH and T.M.I.

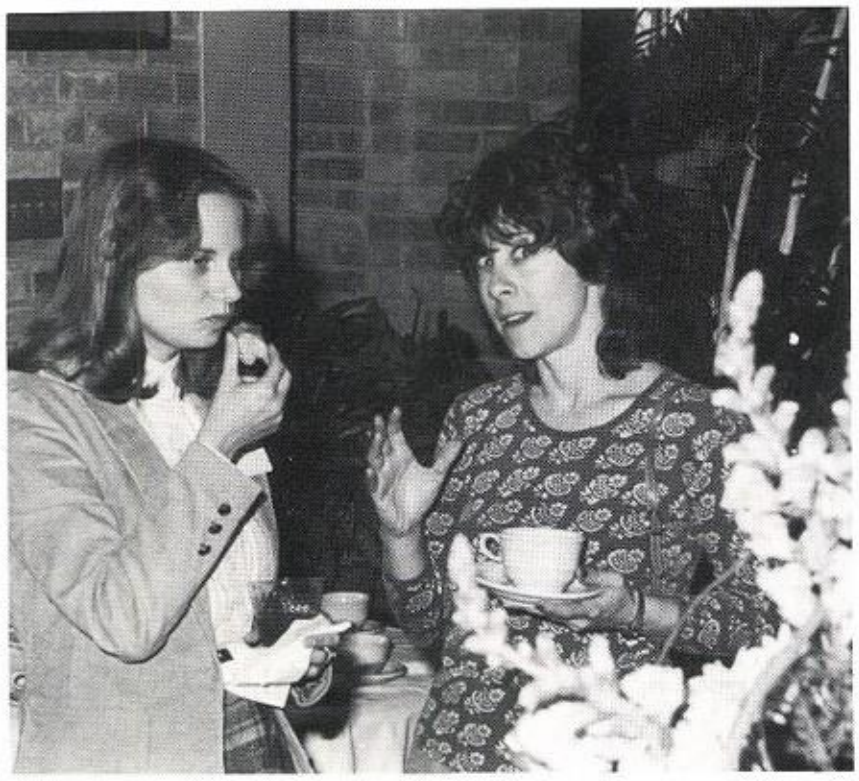
Headmistress's Teas



"Uh-oh, don't look now Colleen."

"I understand you were late to the tea!"

The Headmistress's Teas are a special event in the Saint Mary's Hall school year. It provides an opportunity for the parents to talk with one another, their children's teachers, and the Headmistress. The Tea is given for two grades at a time in order to generate relationships between older and younger students, and to set an example of good manners and social behavior for the younger students.

MIDDLE SCHOOL SPORTS DAY

"Oooh—don't touch me."

"Open Wide"

Sports Day is a bi-annual event in the Middle School. It involves intramurals between the forms and now with the introduction of Bennetts and Baileys, intramurals include events such as tug-of-war, "Capture the flag" and various relays.

BENNETTS / BAILEY DRAWING

A new tradition, fashioned after Capers-Elliotts, was started by the Middle School Senate this year. The teams have been named Bennetts and Baileys, respectively, after two prominent people in the history of Saint Mary's Hall, Jamie Armstrong Bennett and Bishop Scott Bailey. Bennetts and Baileys are formed to boost spirit and points are gained through sports, citizenship competitions, and intramural games.

BARON BUNCH PEP RALLIES

After an absence of several years, Baron Bunch was revived with great enthusiasm. A president and two yell leaders, elected from each form, comprise the Baron Bunch. The Baron Bunch yell leaders help boost spirit by cheering at all sports games and preparing pep rallies for the teams playing in tournaments. The pep rallies are planned with themes in mind such as this year's prep, soul, and beach themes to help give the teams a big send off.

End of School

Swept halls – and all so quiet.
Late sunshine mottles the court,
the curving paths a puzzle of light and shade.
Between Music and Art,
wisteria frames the arcade,
tendrils looping to brush my face
with green lace.
In an alcove, one spiral, two books
sprawl abandoned, overlooked:
lost poetry.
I think of a student, since grown,
who once wove a wonder of words
of her own....
netted in memory,
in thought's tapestry held fast,
we become each other's past.

Joan Mellard
—for my students 1965-83

Tradition, the single element in this edition of La Reata, was used intensely to show the importance of "holding on to our roots". The years of hard work and determination on the parts of many people has made Saint Mary's Hall an honorable and reputable school for girls in South Texas. With that bit of knowledge, the La Reata staff has, through this book, worked to achieve our goal of letting those people know how much we value and appreciate their work. Within the binding of this yearbook, there are a few people who deserve recognition: Elaine Hines, who has lent us pictures from the Saint Mary's Hall archives, Mr. Loomis and Mrs. Maloy, for proofreading copy, and Mrs. Davis, for lending me encouragement and support throughout the year. Within the staff, there are many facets to cover. Jody Baker, photography editor, has printed hundreds of pictures with the help of Shannon Wood and Sarah Lettunich. Elizabeth Chumney and Monica Gross have layed out countless pages and the complete ad section. Molly Derebery rose to, above and beyond the call of duty, by typing thousands of lines of copy. A special thanks to Andrea Jimenez, Courtney Hunter, and Nita Fawcett for salvaging the index after the computer erased the disk the day before the deadline. Felicity Kennedy-Harper, my right hand man, undertook the task of writing paragraphs of copy, pages of identifying pictures, and hours of running errands for this 8th period crew. A big thank you goes out to the rest of the staff for helping me throughout the long crusade. Last, but not least, I thank Mr. Carl Bohne, for being crazy enough to tackle a job like this. Without him, we would probably "never have gotten our biscuits in the oven" to finish this book on time! Being editor my graduating year at Saint Mary's Hall, I leave a book to help you recall all the wonderful memories that you will hold for the rest of your lives.

Here's to You!!

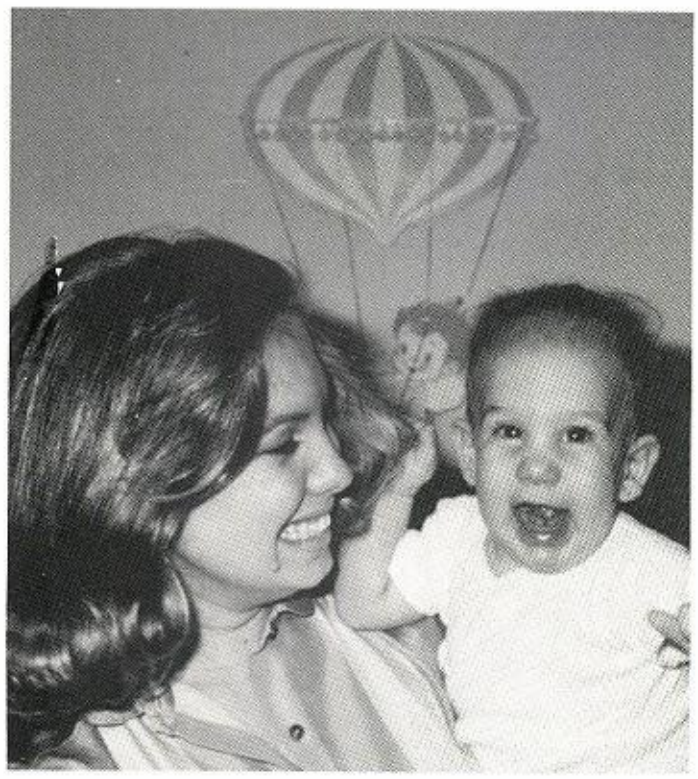
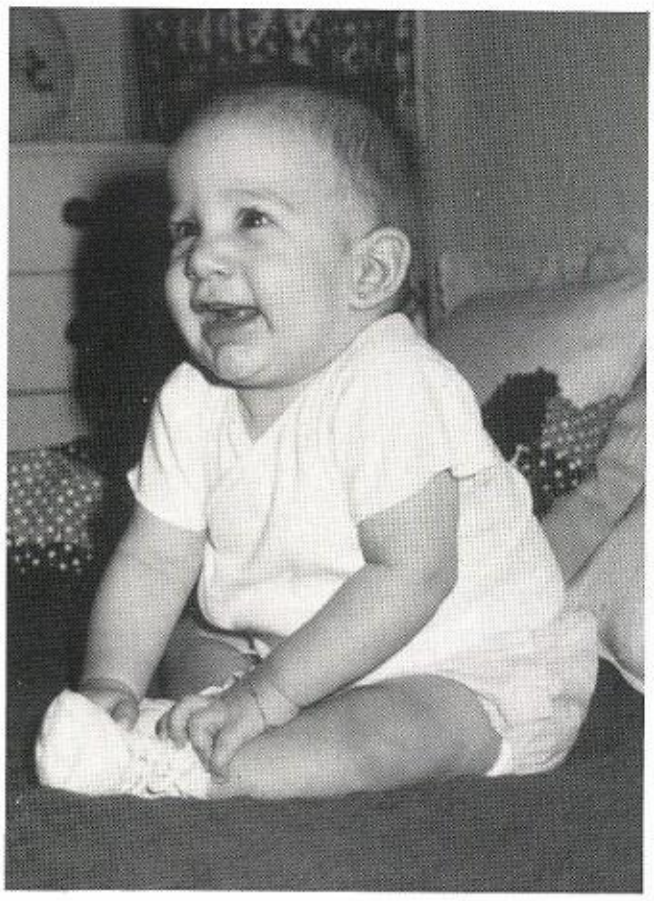
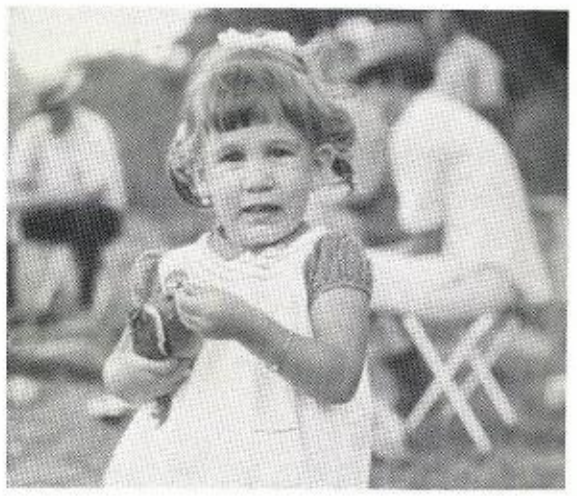
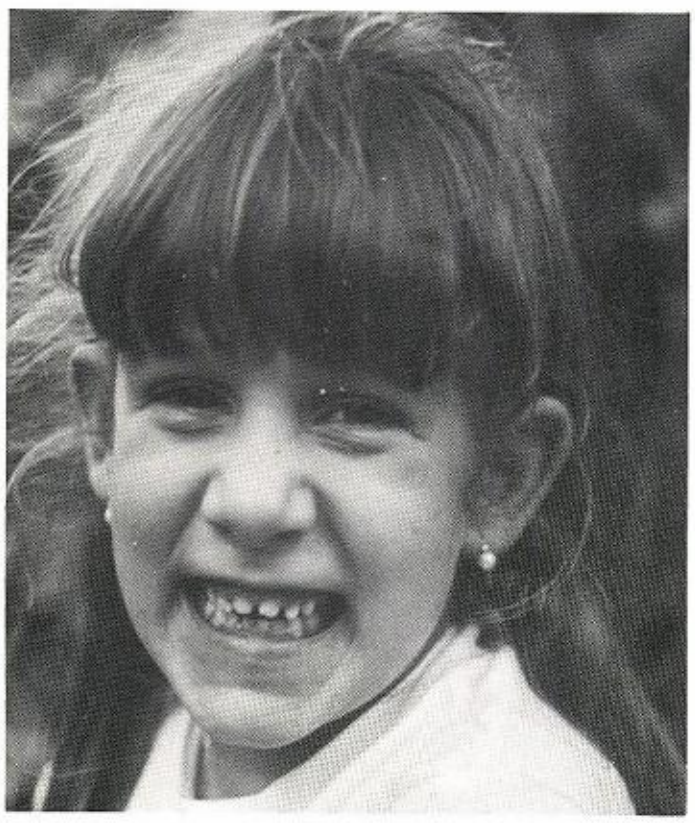
Chips Off The Old Block!









CONGRATULATIONS TO VAN HALEN'S "GREATEST FAN"

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY CASSIE, AND WE LOVE YA' FOR IT!

MAMI Y PAPI

Dear D'Ann You are embarking upon a time when surface indications no longer dictate your actions. Your perceptions will be heightened and because of your personality, your loyalty never questioned. Your two most outstanding characteristics are stability and perserverance. You are so true to your friends at SMH and will hold on to these friendships throughout the coming years. You are a lovely moral girl of whom we are very proud. Continue to strive for a sense of direction and purpose and Reef forever your prospective aimed toward a good Christian life and God will bless you.

You have our love,
Mom and Dad

Here's to a happy, healthy and prosperous future. Remember anything worth doing is worth doing well. Love and Good luck

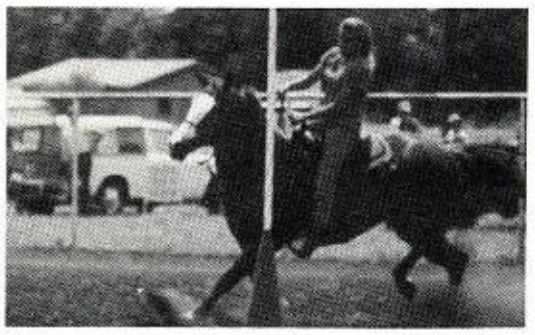
Joe and Debra

D'Ann, You are getting ready to go out into the real world. No more Mom and Dad to make your decisions. So, I hope you have learned many lessons during your years at SMH to carry you into the future. Love, Scott

Best wishes from many that love you: Gramma, Papa & Bano, Auntie Rosie, and Uncle J. P., Auntie Betty and Uncle Ron, Auntie Caryle and Uncle Ray, Uncle Ronnie and Jane and Uncle Lee.

D'Ann, You are about to enter a new and exciting, yet sometimes difficult time in your life. It is quite unlike high school because now you are going to be making your decisions on your own concerning your education and daily life. One in particular will be how important it really is for you to go to that certain class with that certain professor who doesn't seem to know the meaning of the word personality. But you have lots of smarts, common sense and a very strong will to get you where you want and need to go. I know you will charge through with both horns forward. You are very special to me D'Ann not only because we get along so perfectly but because you have always taken care of me. God bless you and watch over you. Congratulatins, Good luck and Study hard!

I love you,
Tori



Good luck and don't forget us—Your Sonny Boy, Cindy, Napoleon, Mr. Ferguson—Buddy, Snoopy and Halloween.

Whitney drank wine, Jody smoked tobacco on the SMH line, the line broke, Jody got choked and we both went to the La Mansion in a little row boat and once we're there "we'll just sip champagne til we break into smiles". The next day you may feel like somebody "dropped a bomb" on you but we can take care of that by getting wasted away again in La Margaritaville" with "too much Tequila, salt, and lime". But next year you can't "blame it on Mexico" because you'll be heading off to the "Smokey Mountain Range" and "The Valley of the Thundering Hearts" where "everybody wants you" but "don't look back-the road is calling" "for your eyes only". Whitney, please remember to call "your moma-M-O-M-A" and tell her it's "just you and I" and that we had joy, we had fun, we had seasons in the sun but like the wine and the song the seasons have all gone". "People always cry when they hear the word goodbye" but Raggedy-Ann and Charlie will keep us company. "It's time for me to fly" but remember Pussygafa—Ohhhhh—You're my best friend!"

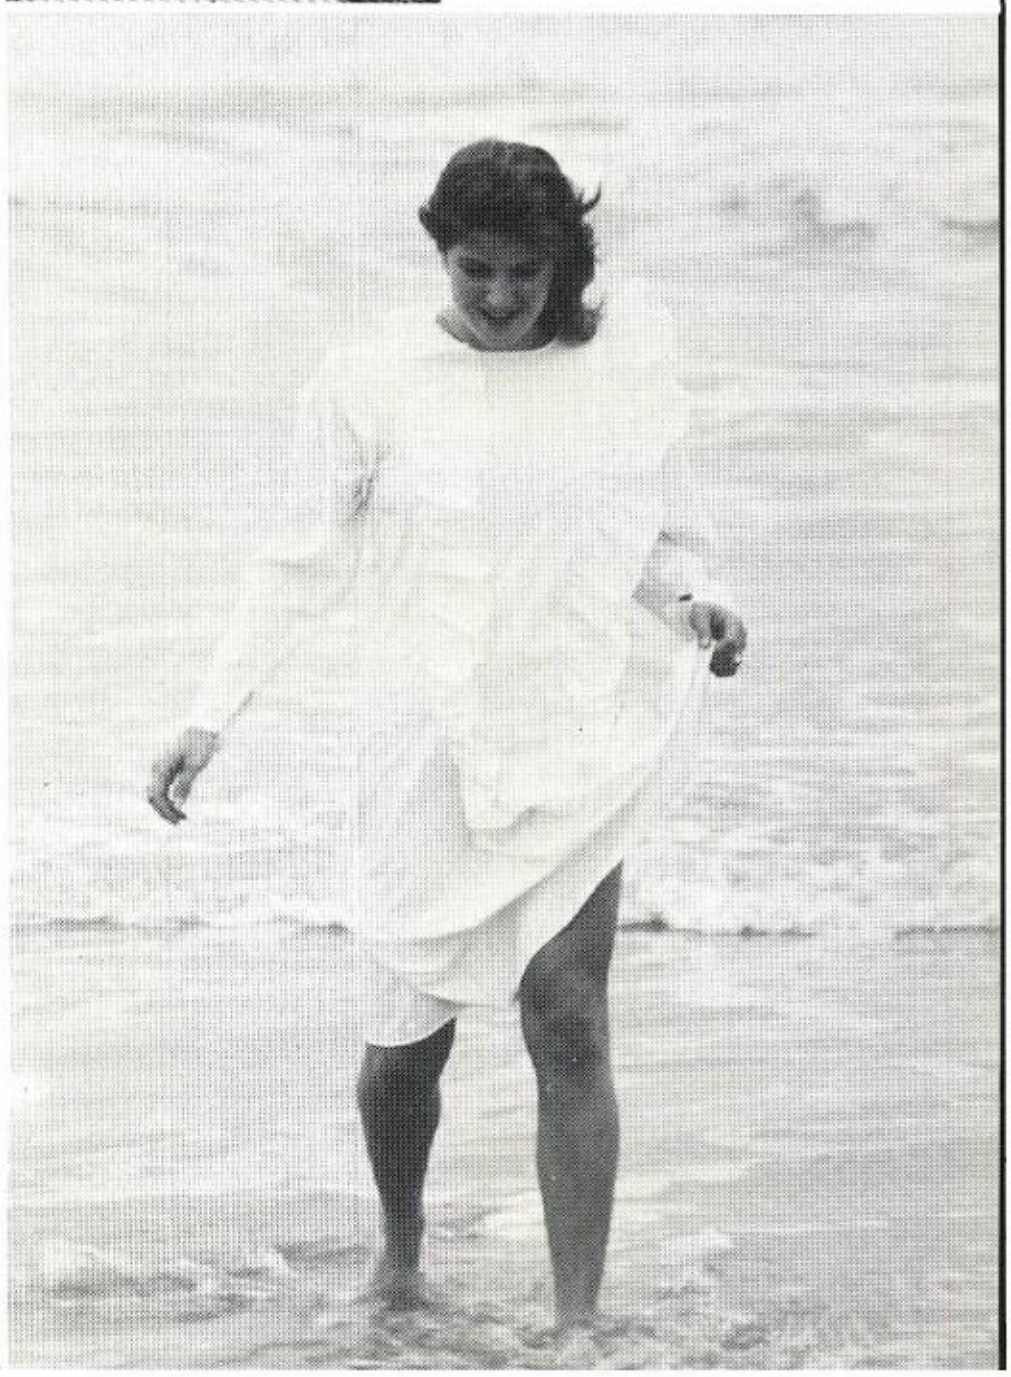
Mom and Papa



Dearest Nita,
What can we say
As you approach graduation day
We're all so proud and about to bust
The years have flown, it doesn't seem just.

Only a few years back, if you can recall
Was a little girl, running down the hall
With "big pink hair" and high heels too,
Acting grown up, like your sisters would do.

Wearing your "mad face" if you had to eat peas
And screaming to save your favorite fig tree.
"By myself and slowly" you conquered the hill
With stubborn determination and honest sheer will

Being the last of the pack is no easy task
And you've handled it better than we could have asked.
You're a big girl now and on your way
To many wonderful times and glorious days.
But always remember we love you the best
And are standing behind you through
All of life's tests.

All our Love,
Mama and Daddy

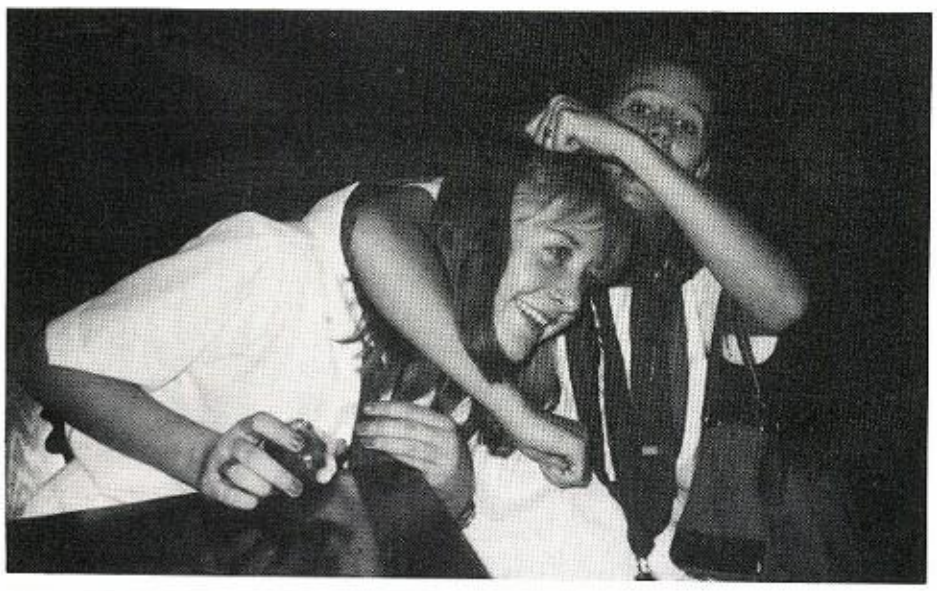
Marcia—
We've made it through another year of gossip, "problems", weekends at your house, two more dances, and more boys, but most of all we've made it through another year of a great friendship!
I love you,
Henri



Whit—
Thanks for always being there when I needed you. You've helped me through alot of rough times (Dec. 5, 1981) and made my past two years here alot easier. Thanks for always listening to me drag on about boys (about 20 now) and Kingsville. Remember "sure, I can play the guitar," the infinite list, Thad, French 2, "Dear Whitney," notes and all the rest. Thanks for being a true friend.
I love you.
ooooo pig sooie,
Hennette

Jody—
I'm really glad we have gotten to be better friends this year, you really helped me with my little problems I've had this year. Have an excellent time at Mary Baldwin.
Love,
Henri

Shannon—
Thanks for always lending me your tapes for the past two years. You've been a terrific pal and I'm gonna miss you tons. By the way, could you possibly get me a date with your Bro.
Love,
Henri

To Elly. . .
Golly, your're taking off ! Have a great time in college and I wish you the very bestest of luck. I'll miss you, Oh, boy. . .
(I don't remember what I was going to say) Take Care!
Love,

Thanks for the extraordinary times.
It's been astonishing!
Too bad it couldn't be elongated.
We'll miss ya'll
Love the '82-'83 Basketball Team

To Mom and Dad
Thanks for everything.
I love you.

To the Seniors of 1983:

Shannon—Hey, don't read this! You definetly need dancing lessons: it takes three, not two, to rhamba. But you do have the tango down pat. I definetly think soccer damages one's anatomy. P.S. David Bowie loves you; Gene Ann—The LaR room won't be the same without you and your "hooey". Are you sure you don't need any help? Oh, I'll go sign you in, 11:45, right?; Kibbles-We shall all miss El Puerco, but no one more than you and me; Mel—Hey Patsy! My Calico just had a little tangle with the lawnmower! (R.I.P.); Anna—It was okay to rip my sleeve once, but just don't ever do it again! And no, you can't have any of my pills; Big El, Big Al, Cassie, Peggy, and Mary Ann—Thanks for brightening my sophomore year. The way, I'm sure, I brightened your senior year.

To all the other more inferior beings:

OAMK, Stacey,Shawnee, MBKR—I definetly think I learned to speak some Spanish! Yo te amo! Adios, Bunuelos!; Peannie—For Christmas, I will get you a life time supply of backrubs or free patronage at Lolita's Masseuse Parlour. I don't even . . . I love you, Pucker; Eskimo Simpson—You still have a bill of $500.00 with LaWanda's Cleaning Service; Henri—I like your watch, too. Monogrammed (HCF) Polos are definetly scummy; Lynn and Lilly—We are the best Baron Bunchers and thanks for getting my uncoordinated body coordinated. (I think):

To Anna:
We wish you a bright and happy future. Be happy, Love, Arturo, Marlie, Elvis and Dad.

Mrs. Rindfuss
thanks for. . .
3 years of wonderful college (M.I.T.) prep math not throwing in the towel when you heard our light click off your little bags of beans being calm through all situations deep breaths and counting to ten make ups
the confidence you had in us that we found hard to find teaching us without us knowing it supporting us in extra-curricular activities
the unforgettable smile
the cheer and true class you have brought to S.M.H.
We can't thank you enough for all that you have done for us.
Mrs. Rindfuss you are EXCELLENT.

Dear Lilly,

It's been great year + I can't wait to see you next year!! You are a great friend! Next year I'll be coming to you looking for help in chemistry! I can't believe you'll be a senior next year! You better come visit me in Cowles!! Jim so glad we got to meet this year - you are soo cute and funny! I'll never forget: Jim from Jersey, are you from Jersey... No Jim from Boston... That's real - nice... etc. Well my mother's here so I have to go!!

Have a great summer + remember: I love you!

If you're ever in the D.R., call me!! (809) 689-9835

Lillian,

Hey kiddo! How ya? Are ya goin' back to WISCHAANSin anytime soon? Give my love to Bill & the kids, will ya,? No, seriously, I really had fun getting to know you! You're such a dear friend. Have a great summer and feel free to write And call ANYTIME! (That would be really niiice!) I'll never forget this year and Joisey... Joshua & Hoiman Boiman... The King furniture company... and the ever-popular "Domingo Piña" show!! I love ya! Take care and don't get into too much trouble!

Love,

Boo :)
